For questions or a list of suggested repertoire, please contact Benjamin Greene, LRSO Music Director at bgreene02@comcast.net. All contestants selected for the in-person auditions will be expected to perform with piano accompaniment (piano excepted). LRSO does not provide accompanists. The winner of this competition will perform the concerto movement with the Lakes Region Symphony Orchestra in November 2012 and receive a $300 cash prize, with second and third place also winning cash prizes of $200 and $100, respectively.

This form must be signed by your private music teacher, or by your school music teacher if you are not currently enrolled in private lessons. The completed application form, your resume, a signed media release form, and $15 application fee should be returned to LRSO by January 30, 2012. Recordings for the first round of auditions are due February 24, 2012. Students moving on to the in-person round of auditions will be notified in mid-March 2012.
